Russia:

Warhead Withdrawals From Kazakhstan, Ukraine

[REDACTED]

The transfers are the first since Moscow and Almaty signed an agreement in March on disposition of strategic nuclear warheads in Kazakhstan.

- Details on the compensation Moscow is to provide for the weapons reportedly are still being negotiated; any problems could forestall future transfers [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is the fifth transfer of strategic warheads to Russia from Ukraine under the Trilateral Accord.

- Additional nuclear warheads, of unknown number and type, were transferred from the Pervomays'k complex to the Ukrainian-controlled stockpile site at Oleksandrivka, where Kiev continues to consolidate some warheads, at least on an interim basis. [REDACTED]
